

VENUE:

ELTE RCH
Institute of History,
1097 Budapest,
Tóth Kálmán u. 4.
Conference room,
5th floor

DATE:

26 March, 2026.

Polish–Hungarian Workshop
(Financed by the NKFIH research project K 147352 – The Annals of Jan Długosz as a Source of Hungarian History)

“A MINE OF INFORMATION? THE ANNALS OF JAN DŁUGOSZ AS A SOURCE OF EAST-CENTRAL EUROPEAN HISTORY”

PROGRAM:

26 MARCH, 2026.

10.00 Opening Remarks:
Tamás Pálosfalvi (ELTE RCH)

10.05 Introduction: Jan Długosz and Hungary – Dániel Bagi (ELTE RCH/Faculty of Humanities)

- 10.10: Hanna Rajfura (University of Warsaw): The Historical Craft of Jan Długosz. Remarks on his Approach to Sources
- 10.30: Judit Csákó (ELTE RCH): Judith or Adelheid? Historical Traditions concerning the Marriage of Stephen II of Hungary in Polish and Bavarian Sources
- 10.50: Gábor Barabás (University of Pécs): Meetings of Piast and Árpáadian Rulers in the Thirteenth Century according to Jan Długosz
- 11.10: Andrzej Marzec (Jagiellonian University, Cracow): The Angevin Succession in Poland in the Fourteenth Century

- 11.45: Anna Obara (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin): The Image of the Southern Slavs in the Annals of Jan Długosz
- 12.05: Tamás Pálosfalvi: Rewriting History. Jan Długosz and the Election of Wladislas III as King of Hungary
- 12.25: Lidia Korczak (Jagiellonian University, Cracow): The Annals of Jan Długosz as a Source on the Reign of Matthias Corvinus
- 12.45: László Szokola (ELTE RCH/Faculty of Humanities): Jan Długosz and the Moldavian Campaign of King Matthias in 1467/68

13.00 – 13.15: DEBATE

- 13.15: Book presentation: Stanisław A. Sroka (Jagiellonian University, Cracow): Ludewik Węgierski. Kraków 2025 (presented by Dániel Bagi)

COFFEE BREAK