

CONTENTS

STUDIES

- Bálint Varga: Counties and Historical Representation in Dualist Hungary 179
- Iván Bertényi Jr.: There Stood for 37 Years. István Werbőczy's Statue in Budapest 203
- Ambrus Miskolczy: The Ideologist-Journalists of the National-Legionary State: the Philosopher and the Anti-Philosopher, the Historian and the Sociologist 231
- Ágnes Tóth: Aspects of Political Surveillance and its Targets in a Multiethnic Village. Vaskút, 1950–1957 251
- Magdolna Baráth: Conflict Management in the Eastern Block after the Death of Stalin 269

WORKSHOP

- Tibor Martí: „Did Pázmány Remain a Jesuit?” – The View of Cardinal Juan de Lugo from 1645 287
- János Kalmár: János Pálffy and the „White Lady of Lőcse” 295
- Verena Moritz: Some Thoughts about the Activity of Military Intelligence Services before World War I 307
- Tibor Hajdu: The Plans of the Russian General Staff in 1910–1913 for an Attack against the Austro–Hungarian Monarchy and Germany 315

REVIEW ARTICLE

- Boris Stojkovski: Serbian Historiography on the Medieval Hungarian–Serbian Relations 329
-