

CONTENTS

An Unknown Acquaintance: the Holy Roman Empire (András Forgó) 189

Studies

Gabriele Haug-Moritz: The Empire, the Imperial State Law and the Protestants 191

Nóra G. Etényi: Publicity of the Holy Roman Empire in the 17th Century 203

András Forgó: The Catholic Enlightenment in German Historiography 239

Márta Vajnági: Coronation in the Holy Roman Empire and in Hungary in the Early Modern Age 267

Barnabás Guitman: Chapters from the History of the Schmalkaldic War 295

Zsuzsanna Hátori Nagy: France and the Holy Roman Empire.
French Political and Territorial Aspirations in the 17th Century 319

Echo

Marianne Sággy: Patron Saint of the Holy Roman Empire: Saint Maurice, the “Black Soldier”. An Overview of the Story of his Relics 337

Review

Acta Pacis Westphalicae (Fanni Hende) 347

Peace and Peacekeeping in the Early Modern Age (Noémi Kalotai) 350

Enlightened Monks. The German Benedictines 1740–1803 (Levente Kollár) 356

Security before the Modern Age and in the Present (Judit Kasuba) 359