

To Géza Dávid in cordial remembrance
of our joint efforts in studying Ottoman history

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION .....	7
CHAPTER I
THE CONQUEST OF HUNGARY AND THE ROAD TO VIENNA (1370s–1530s) .....	25
Why were the Ottomans always at war? Some assumptions ...	27
The Ottoman Empire and Hungary: The first phase .....	48
The accession of Süleyman and the western turn in     Ottoman politics .....	56
The conquest of Hungary and the ensuing Ottoman–Habsburg     rivalry in Central Europe .....	74
CHAPTER II
THE CAPTURE OF BUDA AND THE ROAD TO SZIGETVÁR .....	95
A decisive decade (1541–1550) .....	97
The Transylvanian crisis of 1551–52 and the limits     of imperial politics .....	103
Epilogue: The road to Szigetvár .....	129
REFERENCES .....	135
INDEX .....	161